UNUSUAL SCENES ON SOUTH SEA ISLES ARE DESCRIBED

INTERESTING LETTER COMES TO MRS. FRANK ZERR FROM SON, ON LONG CRUISE

Mrs. Frank Zerr of 309 North Cedar street, whose son, E. J. Zerr, left San Pedro January 19 aboard the Wisdom II on a two years' cruise in the South Sea Islands and other points which have not hitherto been visited by white people, has received the following interesting letter from him:

"We left San Pedro January 19. Were escorted to the open sea by the Oadariva, a seventy-five foot yacht belonging to Mr. Spaulding. I served as a sailor during the trip and stood the first watch, 12 noon until 4 p. m. The time was divided into three watches of four hours each every twelve hours, so each watch served their respective turns day and night. We passed Gaudelupe Island January 21. I stayed up three nights fighting a fever which took hold of Mr. Otto, and after knowing that he was O. K., I had a swim at sea 600 miles from shore. We crossed the equator at 5:55 a. m. We had ice cream to celebrate. February 11 we sighted the Island of Hiva-Oa, one of the largest of the Marquesas, and at 8:15 dropped anchor in a little cove called Pua-Mau. It was a beautiful spot with coconut palms in great abundance, and several houses and huts.

Meet Three White People

"Some natives came out to the ship in an outrigger canoe, and one of our party, MacNeil, and I were the first to go ashore and we went in the native boat. It sure felt good to set foot on land after twenty-three days at sea. We met three white men; one was a French school teacher, one a Norwegian trader and the other a Spanish priest. The trader and school teacher went out to the ship and then two more of our party came ashore. The village contained 180 people, that being the remains of some 5000 inhabitants. The place also supported a leper colony of about thirty. From the village we got some chickens, bananas, oranges, coconuts, etc., to take on board. We left at 2:30 p. m. that same day for the other side of the island and came into Bay of Traitors and on through to a little inner bay called Taha-Uka, where we dropped anchor at 6:30 p. m. Had a nice chicken dinner and a good night's sleep.

"The French gendarme and several white people came on board the

Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Give Dancing Party

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clarke of 351 Oak street entertained with a dancing party Saturday night in honor of Miss Maxine Vick of Santa Barbara, who was their house guest for the past week. The rooms were tastily decorated with pink carnations. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Nevins, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hitchcock, Miss Shirley Hitchcock and Miss Glen Hitchcock of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. George Evans, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warner, Selden Warner and Earl Warner of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Vick and Oscar Constance of Santa Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. George Wadsworth of Hartford, Connecticut, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Clarke.

Mrs. James Horne Entertains Children

Mrs. James W. Horne of 1445 Valley View Road entertained with a children's party yesterday in celebration of the fourth birthday anniversary of her twin children, Jimmy and June. The little guests invited were Stanton Montgomery, Patricia Peirce, Charles Rudel, Isabel Phister, Evelyn Apffel, James Apffel, Doris Berkhardt, Olive Nash, Mary Alice Nash, Audrey Navelle and Jimmy and June Horne, accompanied by their mothers.

One of the features of the afternoon were the motion pictures which were taken of the little folks and their elders. The kiddies enjoyed playing in Jimmy and June's playhouse, which was all decorated with flowers, and which is termed the "Hornlets Nest." Refreshments of birthday cakes, ice-cream and other goodies were served. The youngsters were delighted with the clever little favors of pin wheels, whistles and tiny telephones.

WILLIAM MALCOLM IS BACK

William Malcom, one of the early pioneers of the San Fernando Valley, has returned to the South Glendale section of the city to reside at 210 West Palmer avenue.

NUMBER OF NEW BUSINESS BLOCKS ARE UNDER WAY OR BEING PLANNED

With two new business blocks recorded in today's list of build-permits, those of Charles B. Guthrie at 601-607 North Brand boulevard and G. L. McNaught at 306 East Colorado boulevard, there seems little doubt but what Glendale is now in the center of an epochal construction program.

Plans are being drawn for six new business blocks right now.

There are five or six other projects under contemplation.

There are six buildings being rushed to completion.

Among those definitely announced is a one-story, three-store structure to be erected by H. E. Noble on the northeast corner of Broadway and Orange street. Architect Alfred Priest is drawing the plans. It will be 75 by 75 feet. Its cost is estimated in the neighborhood of $10,000.

E. U. and Owen C. Emery have plans to go ahead with a one-story 50 by 90 foot store room on the north side of Broadway between Maryland avenue and Louise street.

Glenn L. Porter is getting figures on construction material for a one-story business building which he proposes to erect on the southeast corner of Broadway and Orange street.

Plans are made for a building adjacent to the Glendale Evening News office, for another on the southwest corner of California street and Brand boulevard, and the Monarch Auto Supply company block on the southeast corner of Harvard street and Brand boulevard.

Among buildings contemplated is a Chamber of Commerce block opposite The Glendale Evening News office on Brand boulevard. A one-story brick structure on the present site of the Vertmont hotel, a two-story store and apartment building on the west side of Brand boulevard between Wilson and California already announced by Philip W. Parker.

And that isn't all. Every architect in this vicinity is being pushed to the limit to rush out plans and more plans. Laborers, both skilled and unskilled, are reported in demand, and from all indications April will be a greater month than March in the building lines here.

Frank C. Kearne Is After Information And He Receives It

"Why should I join the Chamber of Commerce?"

This was the poser put to Miss Isabel Tisdale, assistant to Secretary James M. Rhoades, of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon.

It was a stranger speaking. And it didn't take long for an answer. Reason after reason was brought forth.

"Well, I wanted to join the Chamber anyway," was the laonic answer. "I am Frank C. Kearne, residing at 221 North Howard street. Presently I am employed in the Walker grocery. Formerly I was a director of the Chamber of Commerce at Olean, N. Y. And I have held about every public office in the county—school director, assessor, yes, even justice of the peace."

Mr. Kearne is one of five new paid-up members joining the revitalized civic organization within a week.

Exhaust Water Supply

After the parade was over—

Yes, yesterday afternoon at Broadway and Brand.

The school kiddies were all thirsty. So a dash was made for the drinking fountain in front of the Pacific Electric station.

Soon it was dry, or at least the faucet failed to function, according to Jimmie Smith, who sells The Glendale Evening News on that corner.

Number Of Moves By Residents Of Glendale

Transfers of service and requests for new electric meter installations recorded at the public service department yesterday were as follows: Miss Zettas, from 1311 Valley View Road to Eagle Rock; E. S. Franklin, 333 North Adams street; J. H. Daugherty, 444 West Stocker street; Hervey Hale, 1014 Stocker street; C. J. Chisholm, 625 East Maple avenue; L. E. Jackman, 1256 Walnut street; A. H. Olin, 1020 North Central avenue; B. J. Robison, 344 West Windsor Road; A. J. Wolfram, 330 West Lomita avenue; Clara F. Brown, 316 Hawthorne street; G. H. Hoffman, 500 Raleigh street; A. S. Formoe, 471 West Lexington Drive; Johanne Swensen, 1600 Rock Glen avenue; Willie B. Glass, 601 North Howard street; O. Spencer, 433 West Broadway; Joe Snyder, 437 West Lomita avenue; L. V. Gibbs, 702 East Colorado street; H. E. Herman, 473 West Windsor Road.

FREDERICK SHIELDS IS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gibson of 518 East Windsor road have as their guest this week Frederick Shields of New York. Mr. Shields is a silk merchant and importer. He is very much interested in Glendale and impressed with the wonderful growth of this city since his trip here a year ago. He often hears of Glendale and its many attractions in New York city.

MRS. PARMELE SLIGHTLY HURT

L. C. Parmele, a resident of San Fernando Road, and Malcolm St. Clair of No. 9 Terrace Villa, Pasadena, were drivers of automobiles which collided about 9 o'clock this morning at Los Feliz and San Fernando Roads. Mrs. Parmele, who was accompanying her husband, was slightly injured and both cars were sent to the repair shop.

SIX KILLED, SCORE HURT AS RESULT OF EXPLOSION

CHICAGO'S 'LITTLE ITALY' IS SCENE OF BLAST; LOSS TO PROPERTY IS MILLION

CHICAGO, March 29. — "Little Italy" was rocked by an explosion today in which probably six were killed and a score wounded.

The blast occurred in the factory of Joseph Neil Paper company on Fourteenth and Halstead streets, which is in the "bloody nineteenth" ward, where Chicago Italians reside.

Officials of the company said they believed the explosion was caused by a gas leak. They said they had no labor troubles or feuds.

Police, however, immediately went to work on the theory that the explosion may have been caused by a bomb and part of the political feud that has waged in the "bloody nineteenth" for years.

A torpedo cap was found by Chief of Detectives Mike Hughes, who rushed to the scene soon after the disaster.

Police reserves rushed from all over the city when the general alarm of disaster was given. Fire crews from all points arrived.

No Fire Follows Explosion

The explosion was not followed by a fire, so the fire fighters became en-

Mr. and Mrs. West Observe Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton E. West, 446 West Elk avenue, entertained sixty of their friends Friday night, March 25, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. They were given a beautiful solid silver coffee urn, a creamer, sugar bowl and sandwich tray was in the set, it was also lined with silver, one for each year of their wedded life. S. E. Sothern presented it to Mr. and Mrs. West in behalf of Mr. West's business associates of the Pullman Sleeping Car company. Mr. Phillips, V. V. Ross, Mr. Williams and T. Armstrong also spoke. A letter and sentimental poem was read, written by their friends.

Dancing and cards were enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Conners sang several beautiful songs. Several letters of congratulations and many beautiful gifts were received.

Dr. and Mrs. Camerer House Party Hosts

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue entertained with a house party Saturday night in celebration of Dr. Camerer's birthday anniversary. Guests were Lieutenant-Commander and Mrs. C. B. Camerer of San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Augustus of Los Feliz Road, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pence of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rawson of La Habra, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Davis of Eagle Rock, Mrs. Nellie Reynolds and Miss Tyner of 215 West Garfield avenue, Glendale. A program of music, literature and games made up a most delightful evening. Dainty refreshments were served.

JOHN BURROUGHS IS CALLED BY DEATH ABOARD TRAIN

FAMOUS NATURALIST PASSES AWAY WHILE EN ROUTE TO EASTERN HOME

NEW YORK, March 29. — The death of John Burroughs today was pointed to by the superstitious as bearing out the old belief that great men always die in cycles of three. Champ Clark died recently. His demise was followed by that of Cardinal Gibbons. Today Burroughs died.

NEW YORK, March 29.—John Burroughs, famous naturalist, died at 2 a. m. today on a train on which he was en route from California to his home at West Park, N. Y., according to a telegram received by Dr. Walter Gray Crump here.

The telegram was sent from Buffalo, N. Y., by Dr. Clara Barrus, the naturalist's secretary, and indicated Burroughs' death occurred shortly before the train reached that city.

Dr. Crum said the body would be brought on to Poughkeepsie immediately. Burroughs' home, where he lived for years, is on the opposite side of the Hudson, a short distance from Poughkeepsie. Friends and relatives will meet the body at Poughkeepsie.

Ill After Leaving Chicago

Dr. Crump's information was that Burroughs, who spent the winter in Pasadena, Cal., became ill after his train left Chicago on the eastward journey. A telegram was sent to Dr. Crump by Dr. Barrus, requesting him to meet Burroughs at Poughkeepsie.

When Dr. Crump was making preparations to start for Poughkeepsie, the second message arrived, advising him that the naturalist was dead.

Burroughs had planned to celebrate his 84th birthday with Henry Ford, H. S. Firestone and Thomas A. Edison, April 3, and was returning from the coast with this idea in mind.

Sensed Last Farewell

PASADENA, Cal., March 29.—Friends who bade John Burroughs good-bye on March 25, when he left for his home in West Park, N. Y., sensed the probability that the farewells were final. Mr. Burroughs at that time was very weak and only the longing to get home by April 3, his 84th birthday, kept him together. To be at Riverby, his West Park home in one more budding April and to "see the sap run again" from his sugar maples, was the last wish of Burroughs.

When John Burroughs arrived here from La Jolla, Cal., a month ago he was in low spirits. He complained of the cold and for the first time in his life he soon deserted the open for the comforts of a warm house. He had taken a bungalow in Sierra Madre canyon, near Pasadena.

However, the beauties of nature could not overcome the chill settling in his blood and he complained always of being cold. He had an oil stove and an electric burner, beside a wood fire in the bungalow, but his cooling blood could not withstand the open and he came down into the city of Pasadena.

Here he entered a local hospital, where two minor operations were performed for an abscess on his chest. He said that he felt he was growing old and at last the fires of life were burning low. He spoke of his approaching birthday on April 3 and said that he wanted to celebrate it at his home in the east.

Light Vote Being Cast In Special Election Today

What is reported by precinct workers to be an unusually light vote is being cast today by the citizens of Glendale on the questions of a freeholders' charter and park, gymnasium, water and warehouse bond issues.

A determined effort is being made by Chamber of Commerce committees to get out a representative poll of the people, but as there is little opposition to the various issues and that unorganized, there seems to be little fear regarding the outcome of the special election.

For those who have not voted, the committees pushing the various projects urged them to do so. The polls will be open until 7 o'clock.

DINNER PARTY GIVEN

Mrs. Julian S. Hayward of 428 West Lexington drive entertained with a dinner party last night in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. E. P. Hayward. The guests were all relatives.

Today's World News In Brief

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NAVY CENSORSHIP OVER WIRELESS WILL BE REMOVED

WASHINGTON, March 29.—President Harding and his cabinet today decided on removal of navy censorship over commercial wireless.

SAN FRANCISCO COAST LEAGUE TEAM SELLS PLAYERS

SAN FRANCISCO, March 29.—The San Francisco Coast league ball club today announced the sale of Joe Connolly, outfielder, and "Gyp" Jordan, pitcher, to the San Antonio club of the Texas league.

PACIFIC ELECTRIC RAILWAY EMPLOYE IS KILLED

SAN BERNARDINO, March 29.—Daniel W. Clifton, forty-five, formerly of Los Angeles, a Pacific Electric railway employe, was instantly killed here today when he toppled from a freight motor and was crushed beneath the wheels of a box car.

WRIGHT PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT ACT IS VOTED OUT

SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The Wright prohibition enforcement act was voted out of committee late yesterday afternoon favorably. The act, which has taken the place of the Harris enforcement act, is written along the same lines as the Volstead enforcement act.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN CAUSE OF SUICIDE OF BANKER

SACRAMENTO, March 29.—Recurrence of a nervous breakdown he suffered a few months ago is today held responsible for the death of George J. Bryte, fifty-one, prominent local banker who hanged himself at his home last night. Bryte has been watched closely for several weeks by relatives who feared he might attempt his life. Bryte was vice president of the California Trust and Savings, was a large land holder and his family has long been prominent here.

TWELVE MILLIONS WILL BE EXPENDED ON RAILROAD

DENVER, March 29.—Announcement was made today of the proposed expenditure of $12,000,000 on improvements for the Denver & Rio Grande railway, sale of which to the Western Pacific railway company was confirmed in federal court here yesterday. The road's name will be changed to the Denver & Rio Grande Western and will be operated as an independent road, officials of the Western Pacific said. There will be no changes in the present staff of officials, it was stated.

EX-PREMIER OF FRANCE IS ON HIS WAY TO WASHINGTON

NEW YORK, March 29.—Rene Viviani, ex-premier of France, will leave here today for Washington without having disclosed the object of his mission further than stating that he comes to pay the respects of France to President Harding. While speculation generally credits him with coming to sound out the Harding administration on how much of the Versailles treaty the United States is willing to accept, there is also a report that he seeks American aid in averting a rumored national financial crisis that threatens to engulf France in bankruptcy.

SAYS INEFFICIENT MANAGEMENT COSTING HUGE SUM

CHICAGO, March 29.—Inefficient management is costing the railroads of the nation a billion dollars a year, W. Jett Lauck, consulting labor economist, told the United States railroad labor board today. Lauck appeared for rail employes to show why national shop agreements between employers and employes should not be abrogated as asked by rail executives. Lauck said the rail tangle was due to the inadequacies of management and not national agreements. If railroad management was characterized by reasonable efficiency and had available for its use a proper amount of credit or capital, labor costs would have shown a radical decline under national agreements.

START INQUIRY INTO TREATMENT WOUNDED SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Appointment of a committee to investigate the treatment of wounded service men, the affairs of the war risk bureau and the board of vocational training, was announced at the White House today. The committee is as follows: Charles G. Dawes, Illinois; John L. Lewis, Indiana; Mrs. Douglas Robinson, New York; Franklin D'Olier, Pennsylvania; Col. Thomas W. Miller, Delaware, alien property custodian; Col. Theodore Roosevelt, New York, assistant secretary of the navy; Col. F. W. Galbraith, Jr., Ohio, national commander of the American Legion; Mrs. Henry R. Rea, Pennsylvania; Col. Milton J. Foreman, Illinois; Henry S. Berry, Tennessee and T. V. O'Connor, New York.

GERMANS KILL NUMBER OF REDS AND CAPTURE MANY

BERLIN, March 29.—German police today drove 3000 communists from the big Leuna works near Essen, killing a number of reds and taking 1000 prisoners. Minister of Safety Severing said the communist "army" which has been drilling behind the factory walls, offered little resistance. In Berlin the situation was improved, although guards remained on duty and machine guns were mounted at strategic points. Tanks rumbled about the city ready to support police and soldiers in case of need. Severing declared the communist uprising had been crushed. Severing also said the communists in the Leuna works had nearly 1000 rifles but that they made little use of the weapons, surrendering after the first rush of the police, in which a number fell mortally wounded while many others were slightly injured.

BETTER AMERICA FEDERATION MEETS WITH DEFEAT

SACRAMENTO, March 29.—The final efforts of the Better America federation to enter the schools of California with their pamphlets failed before the state board of education yesterday afternoon. The board refused to reconsider its action barring the "America Is Calling" pamphlet written by Woodworth Glum of Los Angeles, general manager of the Better America federation. The distribution of the Better America federation pamphlet would be an incentive for other organizations to scatter literature in the schools of the state, Superintendent of Public Instruction Will C. Wood declared following the announcement. "It is safe to depend on our text books," said Wood. "We do not want our educational institutions to become the agencies of any one class."

BUILDING MARK FOR MARCH MAY PASS HALF MILLION

TOTAL AT NOON TODAY IS $419,237 AND REACHES $760,698 FOR 1921

Skating Party Will Be Given Members

The members of the "high school department" of the First Methodist Sunday school are pleasantly anticipating their first annual skating party, which is scheduled to take place on the evening of April 8. The affair will be held in the Alhambra skating rink and it is expected that fully seventy-five of the young people will make the trip.

George Jordan, who is president of the department, is making arrangements for transportation facilities so that there will be ample accommodations for all those who do not own automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Mellus Will Hold Berbecue

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mellus will entertain twenty of their relatives at a barbecue at their home, 355 West Lexington Drive, next Sunday. The invited guests are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Enright and daughters Alice and Adrienne, Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes and daughter Louise, Mr. and Mrs. John Masters, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mellus, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Mellus and daughter Elizabeth, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. A. T. Mellus, Miss Elvira Winston and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mellus.

STORY HOUR IS ENJOYED

The kiddies of Glendale enjoyed the special Easter stories at the library on Harvard street at their regular Saturday story hour, which began at 3 o'clock. The stories told by Miss Leone Shattuck were "The Boy Who Discovered Spring," and "The Cat-Rabbit." An Easter nest filled with eggs was of special interest to the children. Each youngster was given two Easter eggs before going home. These story hours are held every Saturday.

Annual Jinx To Be Feature On April 8

Students of the high school are anxiously anticipating their fourth annual "Jinx Day," which will take place on Friday, April 8. This is the day when both faculty and students forget their daily grind for a few hours by dressing and acting as foolishly as possible. Regular classes will be held all morning, after which a big carnival and dance will be staged in the boys' and girls' gymnasiums. At 3:30 a regular Central league baseball game will be played between the local team and Citrus Union High school.

Prof. William S. Knowlton, of Monson, Me., who is 80 years old, is now teaching the fiftieth year as principal of the Abbot high school. Prof. Whitney J. Rideout, of Foxcroft, aged 70, is also teaching his fiftieth year. He is submaster of Foxcroft academy, a position which he has held for many years.

An unusual capture in the shape of a white mole was made in Ayrshire, Scotland, recently. Moles are generally dark in color, a white one being rare.

Locals And Personals

Mrs. L. N. Hagood of 216 North Orange street entertained relatives from Alhambra over Easter.

Miss Doris Latter of Oakland is spending the week as the guest of Miss Nellie Rowe, 216 South Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Way of North Louise street, who have been wintering in Glendale, left today for their home in Omaha.

Miss Ruth Wilson of 118 North Louise street was the guest of Miss Miriam Lewis at a matinee party in Los Angeles Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stanford of 1147 East Wilson avenue left this morning for Indio. They expect to be gone about a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mallin, who were formerly located at 241 North Howard street, are now residing at 106 South Adams street.

Miss Beryl Caswell of Perris, Cal., formerly of Glendale, visited Miss Nellie Rowe of 216 South Orange street and other friends yesterday.

Mrs. J. D. Eaton and two children of Pasadena were the Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hock of 612 East Orange Grove avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed M. Lee of 345 North Belmont street had as their Saturday evening dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Way of North Louise street.

Mrs. W. N. Stamps of 436 West Colorado street and daughters Doris and Barbara spent the week-end as the guests of Mrs. Coral Davis at Banning.

Eleanor and Elmo Brice have returned to school in Hollywood after spending their Easter vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brice of 304 North Kenwood street.

F. W. McClellan of the Oakland agency, who motors to Palm Springs every week-end to visit his wife, reports that for the second time since Christmas it did not rain during his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Pike of Oskaloosa, Ia., were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Armour, 320 North Central avenue. Mr. Pike is a druggist in the Iowa city.

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue had as their week-end house guests their son and daughter-in-law, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. C. B. Camerer of San Diego.

Joseph Wilson, of West Chestnut street, spent the week-end with friends in Riverside, going up Saturday evening in order to be present at the annual Easter sunrise service Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. Hoskins of Fairfield, Ia., who has been enjoying the winter season here at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. C. Armour, 320 North Central avenue, expects to depart soon for her home in the midwest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Mellus of 355 West Lexington Drive enjoyed golf and dinner at the San Gabriel club Sunday. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burnham and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Mellus of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Max Green and three children, and Mrs. F. W. Cornell, the latter of Van Nuys, made up a merry picnic party that enjoyed Easter Sunday at Brent's crags in the Santa Monica mountains.

Mrs. Mattison B. Jones of 208 South Brand boulevard has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. A. Phillips, in Los Angeles since Wednesday of last week, her little niece, Geraldine Phillips, being critically ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central avenue had as her Sunday evening dinner guests Lieutenant and Mrs. Thomas Wakeman and son, Thomas, Jr., of the submarine L-4 at San Pedro, and also her son, Merle Budd, who is stationed on the New York.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Redmond of 331 West Harvard street has as their Easter Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Tanner of 400 North Louise street and Mr. Redmond's and Mrs. Tanner's mother, Mrs. F. T. Redmond of North Platte, Neb., who is spending the winter here.

Charles P. Brice, of 304 North Kenwood street, returned Sunday evening by automobile from Phoenix, Arizona, having left that city Friday afternoon. Mr. Brice states that business throughout Arizona is poorer than it has been in years, being brought about by the low market price of cotton and as that is the state's principal product most of the farmers are hard pressed.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE TO MEET

The committee working on the Glendale grammar school building program will meet Thursday night at the Intermediate school building to hear final reports by subcommittees on buildings, grounds and district lines. If these reports are adopted by the committee as a whole, they will be presented to another mass meeting for final action, according to Superintendent Richardson D. White.

COMPLETE INQUIRY CONDUCTED INTO OATH OF K. C.

FACTS ARE GIVEN BY FATHER JAMES S. O'NEILL DURING SERMON ON EASTER

Rev. Father James S. O'Neill, pastor of the Church of the Holy Family, devoted a portion of his sermon on Easter to the Knights of Columbus oath. He stated that several non-Catholic friends had inquired recently concerning the oath. During the course of his remarks, Father O'Neill referred to the following, taken from The Bulletin, Los Angeles Consistory, official publication of the bodies of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry in the Valley of Los Angeles, issue of October, 1914, which reads as follows:

For some time there has been circulated in Southern California, and, we, understand, also throughout the United States, what purports to be the oath taken by members of the Knights of Columbus, a Catholic fraternal society. This alleged oath was published in the Congressional Record in February, 1913, and in a local Masonic paper a few weeks ago, and has been handed around in booklets and leaflets. The oath is of the most diabolic and fiendish character. Anyone who would take such an oath would be a monster of iniquity and a dangerous and desperate man. Undoubtedly many persons who have lent themselves to the circulation of this infamy did so in the utmost good faith, because their credulity led them to believe or suspicion the oath to be true, and their just indignation at, and abhorence of such pledges and promises, made them eager to acquaint the world with what they believed to be a despicable band of villains and outlaws.

That those Masons who were misled into accepting this alleged oath as genuine might know the truth, and that we all might be advised of the libelous calumny that was being visited upon many of our fellow American citizens, overtures were made to the proper authorities of the Knights of Columbus, with a view of ascertaining the whole truth about the matter, and then making it known to our brethren. A full and free opportunity was offered the committee to make an exhaustive examination of all the ceremonials and obligations of the Order of Knights of Columbus, and the result is embodied in the following report:

Furnished Complete Copy

"We hereby certify that by authority from the highest officer of the Knigts of Columbus in the state of California, who acted under instructions from the supreme officer of the order in the United States, we were furnished a complete copy of all the work, ceremonies and pledges used by the order, and that we carefully read, discussed and examined the same. We found that while the order is in a sense a secret association, it is not an oath-bound organization, and that its ceremonies are comprised in four degrees, which are intended to teach and inculcate principles that lie at the foundation of every great religion and every free state. Our examination of these ceremonials and obligations was made primarily for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not a certain alleged oath of the Knights of Columbus, which has been printed and widely circulated, was, in fact, used by the order, and whether, if it was not used, any oath, obligation or pledge was used which was or would be offensive to Protestants or Masons, or those who are engaged in circulating a document of peculiar viciousness and wickedness. We find that neither the alleged oath nor any oath or pledge bearing the remotest resemblance thereto in matter, manner, spirit or purpose is used or forms a part of the ceremonies of any degree of the Knights of Columbus. The alleged oath is scurrilous, wicked and libelous, and must be the invention of an impious and venomous mind. We find that the Order of Knights of Columbus, as shown by its rituals, is dedicated to the Catholic religion, charity and patriotism. There is no propaganda proposed or taught against Protestants or Masons or persons not of the Catholic faith. Indeed, Protestants and Masons are not referred to directly or indirectly in the ceremonials and pledges. The ceremonial of the order teaches a high and noble patriotism, instills a love of country, inculcates a reverence for law and order, urges the conscientious and unselfish performance of civic duty, and holds up the constitution of our country as the richest and most precious possession of a knight of the order. We can find nothing in the entire ceremonials of the order that to our minds could be objected to by any person."

Ten Days for Star

An appeal to the superior court to save Bebe Daniels, motion picture star, from serving a ten-day sentence in the Orange county jail was being prepared in Los Angeles today by her attorney, W. I. Gilbert.

Meanwhile Miss Daniels was at liberty on bail of $100. A jury at Santa Ana comprised principally of retired farmers and ranchers refused to be swayed by the dainty actress' charms and, after deliberating exactly seven minutes, found her guilty of speeding more than fifty-six miles an hour.

Justice Cox, who bats 1,000 where speeders of the fifty-mile-an-hour variety are concerned, denied a motion for a new trial and told Miss Daniels she would have to spend ten days of her young life behind bars.

"Guess it's jail for me," Miss Daniels smilingly remarked to a girl friend a few minutes later.

Former Cashier Held

Fred D. Krull, 34, former bank cashier and traveling salesman, reported to be wanted in at least ten cities on charges involving worthless checks, was held in jail in Los Angeles today and is said by authorities to have admitted some of the charges.

Krull's operations are alleged to have netted him about $20,000 in the last two years. Police declare he operated in Chicago, Los Angeles, Kansas City, St. Louis, Denver, Salt Lake, Sioux City, Cedar Rapids and Des Moines.

Woman Loses Fight

Mrs. Grace A. Madden Cohn today had lost her fight to be judicially declared the widow of Isador Cohn, Los Angeles tailor, and heir to his $75,000 estate.

Judge York of Los Angeles ruled she is not Cohn's widow and denied her petition for letters on the estate. Mrs. Cohn maintained she married Cohn in a house at 810 Taylor street, San Francisco, shortly before the big fire. The wedding records were destroyed in the fire, she said.

Evidence introduced by other relatives of Cohn showed that the woman had paid gas bills for the Taylor street place under the name of Mrs. Madden.

May Be Fatally Hurt

Henry Phifer, 35, whose home is in Long Beach, was perhaps fatally hurt in Los Angeles today when his motorcycle collided with an automobile driven by John S. Watters. The accident took place at First and Alameda streets. Phifer suffered a basal fracture of the skull and, in the opinion of Police Surgeon Beggs, his chances for recovery are slight.

Saved From Beating

An attempt by John Lucev, 33, an Austrian fisherman, to air his alleged radical views in the presence of nearly a score of sailors at San Perdo today resulted disastrously for Lucev. Several of the navy men became enraged and pounced upon him. Other sailors saved him from a beating and took him to a police station where he was charged with criminal syndicalism. He is declared to have tried to distribute alleged I. W. W. propaganda among the bluejackets.

EAST BROADWAY ASSOCIATION

Modern Woodmen To Organize In Glendale

District Deputy A. P. Martin of the Modern Woodmen of America will be in Glendale for the next ten days to secure charter members for the organization of a camp of the society in Glendale. Modern Woodmen of America is the largest fraternal benefit society in existence, its membership long since having passed the million mark, and the number of camps throughout its jurisdiction number approximately 15,000, it is stated.

The society maintains and operates a sanitarium where its members may be treated for tuberculosis free of charge, board and lodging in addition to the best medical attention and the most scientific treatment known being included without cost to the patient.

Since 1883 this society has grown to be the largest institution of its kind in the world, its insurance benefits furnish good, safe protection at less cost to its members than the usual charge for term insurance, policies are in full force for full amount from date of delivery, and provision is made for old age benefits, it is announced.

Attorney Henry Molz, who has been active in the society for upwards of fifteen years, is co-operating with Deputy Martin in organizing a local camp, and will be pleased to interview prospective members evenings at his residence, 363 West Lexington Drive.

Stock Prices Advance On Afternoon Trading

NEW YORK, March 29. — Stock prices advanced in afternoon trading here today. Largely through the influence of the American Telephone company's advance in dividends. Telephone stock ran up 6 points on comparatively few shares, reaching 107, the highest since June of 1919.

An initial dividend of one per cent on Allied Chemical was another favorable influence on the market.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The New York stock market, which for the most part was under bear pressure at the opening today, showed signs of a rally during early transactions.

Studebaker was off 1⅛ at 76¼, at the first sale, a decline of 3½ from Monday's high. The stock rallied immediately, however, and within a few moments, regained a full point.

United States Steel was ⅛ off at the opening, 81¼.

Sears Roebuck, which rallied yesterday after directors had announced their dividend decision, opened off ½ at 67½, but rallied to 68. Mexican Petroleum, which has been selling on rumors of financing, sold down to 142½.

Rails were unchanged.

There was a general slump, with sellers driving prices down and especially in motors, tires and some of the lower-priced oils. Studebaker, which has led the recent advance, was pounded down to 76⅛ and Sears Roebuck was forced down to 66⅝.

An explanation for the recent declines in U. S. Steel was seen in the following statement by the Dow Jones financial agency.

"It is believed United States Steel will announce a new schedule of prices shortly after the return of Chairman Gary. The annual meeting will be held April 18 and Chairman Gary may have an important announcement to make.

"The inventories of the United States Steel Corporation are smaller than they were before the war, if increased capacity is taken into consideration and a reduction in prices will not be a great hardship."

Far East Offensive Planned By America

WASHINGTON, March 29. — An American commercial offensive in the far east probably will be the major movement in an impending world shifting of ocean trade routes, it was learned today.

The objective of the far east offensive, if it is undertaken, will be the upbuilding of a trans-Pacific trade to offset losses in Europe and South America and avert a slump that, without new outlets for American productivity, might affect every agricultural and manufacturing industry. This program will include:

1. Establishment of new steamship lines at San Francisco, Portland, Seattle and all the west coast and Puget sound ports, together with development of port industries and placing of new manufacturing industries throughout the coast country.

2. The same development at New Orleans, Galveston and gulf and south Atlantic ports, for new lines to the far east through the Panama canal.

3. New lines and increases of existing services from Boston, New York, Baltimore and north Atlantic ports for trans-Pacific trade through the canal.

4. Campaigns to induce heavy investment in railroad building and industrial development in China; investments in Japan, the Straits settlements, Australasia, government and private interests co-operating in making of Manila what Gibraltar and Hong Kong are to British foreign trade; great industrial investments in Siberia as soon as political conditions permit.

All these involve a careful program of commercial diplomacy with Japan, it was said here, and make our Japanese relations of vital bearing to the industrial development of this country.

UNUSUAL SCENES ON SOUTH SEA ISLES ARE DESCRIBED

next morning and several of the boys and I went ashore. We landed with a small boat at a bunch of rocks where some stone steps led up to a trail, and we then went over a hill to the next valley, where a little town was nestled among the coconut palms and breadfruit trees. We met a half-cast American and Marquesan who ran a store for a big French company. He introduced us to several French people, who invited us to their club for the next day. We had coconuts, mangos, alligator pears, guavas and bananas. We looked over the valley pretty well and found a quaint old Catholic church and a little Protestant church.

American Goods Popular

"There were two Chinese stores, three stores owned by French companies and one store owned by an English company. American goods seemed to be most popular. The natives most all wore civilized clothes, except in their homes, where they wore the pareaus, a bright white and red loin cloth with big figures woven in the cloth. The women wore them around their bodies under the arms and falling in straight lines to the knees, while the men wore them around their waist as a breech clout, with bare shoulders. They have clean-cut features and remind one very much of the better class of Mexicans.

"The next day we were entertained by the Atuana club (Atuana being the name of the town), and we were served with punch chilled with ice we took to them from the ship. They have no ice on the island and that made a hit with them all. Most of the members of the club were French and three or four natives. The next day we went ashore, taking moving pictures, and as it rained nearly every day during our stay, we had to work between showers. The next Tuesday we photographed an old native some 76 years old, who was tatooed from his hair to his feet, even on his eyelids, and our guide and interpreter told us that the old native was a cannibal and had eaten human flesh.

Feasted on Human Flesh

"That afternoon we visited the sacred forest, or as they say here "The Taboo Grove," where, in the old days, the natives held their feasts on human flesh, and where no women were allowed to ever go, and even to this day the native women seldom go there. I will bring home some pictures of the place.

"The next day it was rainy all day and we did not shoot any pictures. Mr. Otto and I were invited to a Mr. Varney's home for what they call breakfast. They only drink coffee in the morning and have their real meal about 11:30 a. m. His wife is a native of Tahaiti, and she prepared a native dinner for us. We had chicken cooked with garlic, baked breadfruit, coconuts, mangos, salad of taro leaves with chicory and jam, and I will say it was all very good. Taro leaves are a species of our elephant ears which grow in the gardens. They also use the root to eat and it is considered a great dish. Other fruits we had were the pistachio, mangostinos and papeas. I am unable to describe them so you will understand, but I liked most of them. We met the priest and the next Sunday we all went ashore and everyone, except myself, went to church. I stayed out to photograph the people coming from church. I also got a shot of the church and an unusual crucifix with the two Marys on each side, all in bronze, mounted on a granite base about twenty feet long and some twenty-five feet high.

Native Feast for Guests

"That afternoon we were invited to a native feast given in our honor by the Atuana club, and supervised by Captain Meekelee of a French trading schooner. The other camera man went in the morning to photograph the preparations for the feast. They spread green banana leaves under the banana trees, which served as a table cloth, and under that was a thick covering of dry banana leaves on the ground. These were also spread upon the ground where we were to be seated. A pit was dug and large stones heated, upon which everything was put at one time and the whole thing covered with green leaves from a banana tree and dirt piled over that, and the whole thing left to cook for a little over an hour, when it was uncovered and a very savory repast was served us. After we were through the natives had a turn at the feast, and then the dogs had their turn. The menu was about as follows: Roast young pig; salad composed of shrimp, chicken with grated coconut; candied bananas, fresh bananas, coconut milk which was drunk from the nut, mangos, breadfruit, papaes, taro salad. The whole conglomeration was put into fresh coconut milk and eaten in that manner. It was some feed at that, and was really enjoyed by us all.

Picture Show Is Given

"That night we gave a picture show on board, and it was attended by the French administrator and the total white population and most of the natives of Atuana. There sure was some crowd. We spent the remainder of our time shooting pictures and tried to buy the dancer's grass skirt, but instead of selling it to me, she gave it to me as a gift. We were treated most kindly by all during our stay, and as we left the shore was lined with practically every man, woman and child to bid us adieu. The priest has lived on the Island of Hiva-Oa for twenty-one years and he requested us to take him to Tahaiti with us, which the captain was glad to grant. The priest sent six pigs, thirty-six chickens, bananas, coconuts, mangos, oranges and several other things to the ship for the trip. I am now writing this at sea four days from Atuana. Will finish this at Tahaiti.

Sees First Steamer

"It is now March 1. One day from Papeete. Just passed a beautiful island called Makatea, which is very precipitous and has many coconut palms and other kinds of trees that I could not make out what they were. There also was quite a little settlement on one side of the island, and on the other there was some kind of a mine. We saw the first steamer there since leaving San Pedro. We have had the engine of the ship running for the last three days and about an hour ago there was a good breeze come up and now that we are sailing under canvas without the engine it sure seems nice and quiet.

"Arrived in Papeete 1 p. m., March 2. As we approached the harbor we saw a small boat coming through a long line of breakers and it proved to be the port pilot coming in answer to our flag calling for a pilot. He came on board and took us through the coral reefs, which caused great breakers. The passage was some 300 feet wide. This place is quite a good sized town owned by the French government and has a population of some 15,000 people, the majority being native Tahitians, next Chinese, then the French, Americans, English, etc. Went ashore and one of the hotels gave a native hula dance with a dinner in our honor. Vegetation here identical with that of the Marquesas, only there are more and larger streams of water on this island. Everyone here is very hospitable and friendly. Commodities are as cheap, if not more so, than in the United States. Many things are far cheaper than at home, especially white clothes. We intend to only get the most prominent features of this island, as it is so much like the Marquesa.

Fords and Other Cars There

"There were quite a number of Ford automobiles here, also Studebakers, Overlands and King 8's, and I have only seen one European automobile. We hired a Studebaker five-passenger auto and made a couple of trips both directions looking for locations and seeing the country.

"We expect to sail from here in about a week and we stop at Bora-Bora Island, about sixty miles from here, and then to Samoa, where we will stay for a couple of weeks and I can also get some mail. We expect to get to Samoa about April 5 and I will write from there. I am afraid I will be unable to write these long descriptive letters, as it takes so much time that I miss too much in the writing, so will make them general, with more post cards and pictures, which will explain just as well.

"E. J. ZERR."

SIX KILLED, SCORE HURT AS RESULT OF EXPLOSION

gaged in digging the dead and wounded out of the wreckage.

Three dead had been taken out and it is estimated that at least three others are under the debris.

Injured were rushed to improvised hospitals in the city. Homes were thrown open for the care of those hurt.

The three victims of the explosion who were pulled from the ruins were badly mangled. It is expected that identification will be difficult, if not impossible.

The explosion was heard for miles around.

Heavy plate-glass windows were smashed on the sidewalks within a radius of one mile.

Pictures in homes were crashed to the floor.

Hold Back Frantic People

A cordon of police was immediately thrown about the scene to keep back the frantic Italians who rushed to the scene to determine if any of their relatives were among the victims.

Pleasant-mannered Italian women, grown wild over the fear that some of their loved ones had been killed or injured, battled with the police to see if they could identify any of the victims.

Police, however, were forced to hold back these pathetic women with brilliantly colored shawls hastily thrown about their shoulders.

The first body to reach the county morgue was identified with difficulty, as that of Mike Tipanski, 32, a truck driver. He was found underneath the wrecked building.

It is not known whether he was in the building at the time or hurled from his truck, which was passing the scene when the blast came. His head was blown off.

Thousands of Italians—men, women and children—held back in their repeated efforts to rush the police lines, gasped and then fell into silence as they saw two bodies with the heads blown off, pulled out and put on stretchers.

The foot of a girl, still neat with its satin pump, was pulled out and placed on a white canvas-covered stretcher—waiting for the remainder of the shattered body.

A horse, with its legs blown completely off, was still alive when firemen arrived and its howls of misery and suffering were ended by a revolver shot.

The Weil Paper company was surrounded by little shabby cottages inhabited by Italians.

Many of these little homes were smashed to atoms and the occupants, bleeding and bruised, forced into the street.

These unfortunates were cared for by more fortunate fellow countrymen who took them in their homes and cared for their injuries.

Feet of the mob held back by the police were cut when plate-glass hurtled from the windows into the street cut their shoes.

Police estimated that the loss from the explosion would reach the million-dollar mark. This included the wrecked factory and the little homes near it.

England Makes Offer To Sell Oil Fields

LONDON, March 29.—Great Britain has offered to sell American interests a substantial portion of the disputed Mesopotamian oil fields, it was learned from an authoritative source today.

This fact developed simultaneously with the information that the British government has prepared "a white paper," presenting its side of the controversy to date, intending to publish it as soon as the United States grants permission to make public the text of the British answer of February 28 to the American oil note of November 26.

The proposal to substitute dollars for diplomacy in settling the petroleum dispute had this condition attached:

The British want the United States to recede from its position that Great Britain is maintaining a "closed door" policy in Mesopotamia.

The United States was informed that the sale offer has been presented unofficially several times, but that the whole proposition was presented to two prominent Americans very recently, the British spokesman being an oil man qualified to handle such an important matter. The gist of the conversation was reported to have been as follows:

The British spokesman—"It is an absurdity for America to declare Britain has closed the door to Mesopotamia. The British concessions in this territory were obtained by recognized legal methods. We are willing to share the properties with American companies. But we insist on selling our property and not having it confiscated."

One of the Americans—"Then the British argument rests entirely on whether Britain's Mesopotamian concessions are valid?"

The British spokesman—"If American corporations want to operate in Mesopotamia, let them make a regular business offer for part of our holdings. We will consider it favorably if it is reasonable."

NEW YORK, March 29.—"American oil interests do not want the 'right' to buy into the Mesopotamian oil fields, but they do want the right to conduct explorations there and develop that field the same as in any other independent country," an official of a big American petroleum concern declared today when informed of the British offer to sell concessions in Mesopotamia. He said the reported offer had not yet been officially conveyed to American oil interests.

PARADE IN BEHALF OF BOND ISSUES BIG SUCCESS

PLENTY OF EVIDENCE FROM SCHOOL CHILDREN THAT THEY WANT 'CENTER'

Some parade!

We'll say so.

It was the students of the Intermediate school.

They were headed by buglers and drum corps, followed by a dozen pretty tennis girls carrying racquets and net. Then came the Intermediate track team with the laurels of the field displayed.

Next in the "swim" were bathing suit boys and the dozen of them paddling along over the hot pavement carrying signs "We Want to Swim in Glendale," or "We Need a Big Place in Which to Swim," won the sympathy of the throng.

For that was the big idea of the parade. In the long line which followed, every group carried banners urging that the parks and civic center bonds be voted today.

Boys in bathing suits also peddled bills to all of the motorists and stores along the parade route. It was an appeal from the committee on parks and civic center and as one old gentleman remarked,

"If the bonds carry, the boys will have earned it by blistering their backs today. I'm for 'em."

At the corner of Broadway and Brand the several hundred youngsters were "banked in" solid across the street and there they sang several songs urging the passage of the two bond issues. Miss Gladys Sharpe led the singing and Miss Eula Linkogel directed the yells.

Each division of the parade was marshalled by a teacher, as follows: Misses Jackson, Potter, Duncan, Sharpe, Midcalf, Sinclair and Loopabauch; Messrs. Blanford, Whytock, Cobb, Charles and Alvis.

Superintendent White in Charge

Superintendent Richardson D. White was grand marshal of the event and to him a great deal of credit is due in making this big showing on the eve of a municipal election.

Some of the features of the parade were two fat boys in swimming suits carrying a banner reading "We Need a Big Place in Which to Swim." The long and short of the argument was represented by Frederick Whittaker and Dorsey Mottern. Dorsey is about thirty inches shorter than Frederick.

The Glendale Evening News had a handful of the boys in bathing and track suits to line up in front of the Pacific Electric station to give Glendale citizens who failed to see the parade a good idea why the husky youngsters here deserve a civic center gymnasium and parks with a swimming pool.

RECORD IS SET AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH SUNDAY

GREAT CONGREGATION THERE FOR EASTER; SCHOOL MARK IS FIXED AT 712

At the First Methodist church Sunday the greatest congregations of the year gathered. There were 712 as a record Sunday school attendance. A pageant, "The Resurrection of Peter," was presented in Oriental costume, with the most telling effect. The pageant was given by the Young Men's Bible class, assisted by ladies from the J. O. C. class. E. A. Bachtel was general chairman in the arrangements and Mrs. J. H. Payne was directress. The following were the characters: Mary, Mother of Jesus, Mrs. Dr. Brown; Mary Magdalene, Mrs. Marion Webb; Salome, Mrs. S. A. Warren; Peter, S. C. Wheeler; James, Dr. C. D. Lusby; John, Charles Starkey; Andrew, Mr. Dial; Philip, E. A. Bachtel; Thomas, Ed Messer; Cleopas, Prof. W. D. Root.

Epworth League Service

At the 11 o'clock hour Dr. Crist baptized eleven and received forty-four into church membership. The Easter sermon text was I Cor. 15:20, "But now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that slept."

The Epworth League service was of very special interest and the League room was filled with young people. The cross covered with lilies was under a spot light, while the rest of the room was in semi-darkness. A most profound impressionwas made on this band of young people as Carl Seitter, the new religious educational director, made a telling speech. The Methodist young people are thoroughly alive and no better evidence is needed than that which manifested itself last Sunday night.

At 7:30 o'clock the vested choir, under the direction of Miss Isabelle Isgrigg and Mrs. H. W. Randall at the organ, presented the Easter antata, "Victory Divine," by J. Christopher Marks. The crowd was large and the music was of a very high character. This closed one of the greatest Easter observances of Glendale.

LOIS WEBER FILM AT PALACE GRAND

WHAT'S WORTH WHILE? THAT QUESTION IS ANSWERED; IT'S NOT SERMON

If you were asked "What's worth while?" what would your answer be? In a vague sort of way you have always told yourself that you knew, but the chances are that you have never given the subject serious thought.

Telling yourself a thing is easy, but how would your thoughts on this subject sound, if spoken? If you were to keep that thought "What's worth while?" before you, dissect it and then practice it, you'd never have cause to say "I'm sure unlucky," and when your day's work is over you would know it had been conscientiously done, and your night's sleep would be sweet.

Lois Weber has adapted the thought "What's worth while" to the screen and it's not a sermon, but a picture of gripping heart interest from stem to stern, in which this producer-director has won fresh laurels. "What's Worth While?" will be shown at the Palace Grand today and tomorrow.

"Torchy's Night Hood," with Johnny Hines, is the latest Torchy comedy and it provides the mirth of the bill. "Zampa" is the overture offered by the Palace Grand orchestra.

Application From Company Approved

The following communication to the public from the Committee on Censorship of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce is self-explanatory:

"March 28, 1921.

"To the Citizens of Glendale:—We have investigated the application of the California Hydro-Stone company for the location of their plant in Glendale, and it is our opinion that the proposition appears to be all that it is stated to be by Mr. Parks, president of the ompany.

"Furthermore, we believe there is a market for this building product, and that the company, if properly managed, would be not only a benefit to Glendale but would yield desired returns on an investment made in the company.

SHORT TALKS ARE GIVEN ON WHITTIER MEETING; NOTES OF SOUTH GLENDALE

The Sunday evening Endeavor service of the Tropico Presbyterian church proved to be unusually interesting as an "echo" meeting. Several of the members who had attended the Whittier convention gave short talks on their various experiences and the wonderful inspirations received there.

A pleasing violin selection, chosen from among the compositions of Charles Wakefield Cadman, was given by Georgia Thompson.

The meeting next Sunday, April 3, will be led by Walter Sullivan, the subject being "Thy Kingdom Come—In My Community."

Plans have been made for special music, and everyone is urged to come and help make it a live, interesting service.

Playmates Kidnaped! Anyone Seen 'Speckie?'

Hel-lup! Murder! Police!

Ernest Ethbert Brown, aged 6, of 1733 Gardena avenue, is mourning the loss of four companions, a particular favorite being nicknamed "Speckie."

When Ernest went out the other morning to play with his five companions, as was his usual custom, he found that four of them were gone. Some bold marauder under cover of darkness had made love to the four of the gentler sex, leaving "R. I. Red" and Ernest to mourn their loss.

Little Ernest, who is a quaint philosopher, thinks the thief did not take the rooster because he was too tough, but he cannot understand why his four pets should have been taken when just next door there was a big pen of choice chickens unmolested.

A local Sherlock Holmes was called in, but he threw up his hands in despair. The mystery remains unsolved.

NEARLY 200 GO FROM THIS CITY; INITIATORY WORK GIVEN, ALSO PROGRAM

Officers and members of Glendale lodge of Elks, No. 1289, totaling 175, left Glendale shortly after 6 o'clock last evening in a train of four special cars for Long Beach, where they put on the initiatory work.

The officers included in the party were John H. Fanset, exalted ruler; Alfred F. Priest, esteemed leading knight; Arthur H. Dibbern, esteemed loyal knight; James A. Apffel, esteemed lecturing knight. The White Star patrol and the Elks orchestra, the personnel of which follows, were included in the party: R. E. Olin, director; H. R. Goodwin, organist; W. G. Bramman, J. M. Stadt and B. C. Glasscock, violin; M. E. Caruthers, cello; H. H. Parker, bass violin; H. D. Greenwalt and M. L. White, flute; R. T. Williams, clarinet; W. J. McIntyre, saxophone; E. H. Kerri and L. E. Wilbur, cornet; I. S. Brown, trombone; H. G. Henning, French horn; R. C. Flint, drums and traps.

Meeting Big Success

The meeting was very successful and a royal good time was shown the members and officers of No. 1289. A very high-class entertainment in the form of a musical program was enjoyed during the evening. Lunch was served after the lodge session.

Installation of the new officers of Glendale lodge will occur next Monday night. It had originally been planned that Frank Bryson, public administrator of Los Angeles county, would install the officers, as representative of the grand lodge, but his illness prevents. Leo Stromee of San Bernardino will conduct the installation ceremonies. It will be interesting to note that Mr. Stromee was second in command of the "Lost Batallion" of the Argonne.

PLEADS SPORTSMEN URGE DEFEAT OF ASSEMBLY BILL

WRITER OBJECTS TO TAKING AWAY POWER OF FISH AND GAME COMMISSION

Editor The Evening News—I am sending you a circular letter which I feel sure you will be glad to give space in your paper, knowing you to be broadminded enough, even though you may not be a hunter or fisherman, to see the point at issue which affects so many of your subscribers and fellow citizens.

I want to urge every sportsman in Glendale and vicinity to do as Mr. Dyas suggests, to get posted at once, write to their representatives with their protest and request them to do all in their power to defeat any such act as outlined in Assembly Bill 352. We want our fish and game license moneys used for the upkeep and protection of fish and game only and believe the commission is now handling this business in the best possible manner, and this is one of the commissions we cannot afford to abolish, for in doing so we are going to lose the direct effort to protect our fish and game. Yours sincerely,

J. A. FARRELL,
133 Atwater Avenue.

Here Is Circular Letter

The circular letter signed by B .H. Dyas of Los Angeles, referred to by Mr. Farrell, follows:

Dear Fellow Sportsmen—I know you enjoy the same things as I do, and am writing you because our interests as hunters and fishermen are in serious danger at Sacramento.

Unless we act now and all together, there is a probability of the hunting and fishing license moneys being diverted under cover of law from their present purpose by putting them into general state funds. Then, they could be spent only by legislative appropriation every two years, and for agricultural purposes other than preservation of fish and game, as now insisted upon by law.

While we all agree on the need of every efficient economy in general state government, the fish and game business is peculiar because it has not cost the general state funds one cent in twelve years. Since the hunting and fishing license acts were passed, sportsmen have paid all their bills in California. When we buy our licenses, we do it cheerfully to keep up the fish and game for ourselves and our sons. We do not want these great attractions wiped out with our money in the interests of agriculture. It has taken a lifetime to put these assets of the state on their present squarely representative and self-supporting basis, where their upkeep is paid for by a special and nominal tax on a small part of the people who pay it willingly because they know it is being spent effectively.

Protest Is Being Urged

Having sold for the fish and game commission many thousands of these licenses, I am in a position to know something of the business-like way in which this part of the job has been handled. This one commission has to collect its funds before it can spend them on its direct beneficiaries. I say "direct beneficiaries" because business experience convinces me that every person in California gets benefit from improvement of our outdoor attractions through expenditure of sportsmen's money as it has been made in the past.

Before the present system is changed, we want definite assurance that there will be a better arrangement than any now proposed. I understand that Assembly Bill 352, as offered, aims to combine the fish and game commission with an enlarged "state department of agriculture" and put all license collections into common state funds. This means the end of a government of sportsmen by and for and paid for by, sportsmen, whether camouflaged in this, or amended form. We must protest emphatically, either through organizations or personally, and should advise our legislative representatives at once.

Yours for action, not re-action,
B. H. DYAS.

Kansas People Will Hold Picnic April 2

George W. Hamlin, secretary of the Kansas association predicts more than ten thousand for the annual spring picnic of the Jayhawkers Saturday, April 2, in Sycamore Grove park. Plans are made for the county registers and hot coffee and the program will follow the dinner hour. This picnic covers all southern California, where are more than fifty thousand people from the Sunflower state. Tourists are urged to come and meet their friends. The reunion will last all day, from 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Massachusetts boasts that she has now one bath tub to every four persons. But of course that's not saying that every four persons in the state have access to one bath tub. There are still many who have to wait till it's warm enough to go to Revere Beach, or wherever it is they go.

LUMBER

Lumber has now actually descended to pre-war prices. Siding, roofing, laths, posts and all the other items on the lumber list have taken a decided drop.

ACCUSED BY DEAD MAN; IT'S MYSTERY

UNUSUAL PICTURE IS BEING PRESENTED AT GLENDALE; ORGAN MUSIC PLEASES

"Brent Warren! Do men die?"

Terror struck to the heart of Brent Warren every time the telephone bell rang. The weird voice that rasped over the wire, "Brent Warren! Do men Die?"—where did it come from? How could it come from anywhere? Morning, noon and night it haunted him.

The voice was undeniably that of George Roan. But how could it be? Had not Roan been convicted of theft and murder, sentenced to the gallows, hung and officially pronounced dead by the state? Roan was dead! Dead! Yet his voice lived on the telephone wire!

Warren had good reason to fear the voice. He had railroaded Roan to the gallows for his own crime. The dead man was the only one who could accuse him—the only one who could prove his guilt. But, can the dead accuse?

Those attending the Glendale theatre today, where the Robert Brunton-Pathe feature, "The Devil to Pay," is showing, will be thrillingly entertained by Roy Stewart, Robert McKim, Fritzi Brunette, Joseph J. Dowling, George Fisher and others in this amazing story by Frances Nimmo Greene.

"Rough Riding in Guiana" is a travel picture, while the Pathe Review and Rolin comedy round out the bill. Madame Clement plays "Dear Old Pal of Mine" on the Southland's greatest organ.

Laurence Colino To Have Jury Hearing

Laurence Colino was arraigned before City Recorder F. H. Lowe yesterday on a charge of selling liquors to minors. His hearing before a jury of twelve was set for April 7 and 10 o'clock.

Colino, who is out on $200 bail, has retained Attorney Owen C. Emery as counsel.

Cerra del Nercado, near Durango, is the largest iron deposit in Mexico. It is a great mound 640 feet high, and is said to be almost a mass of iron.

The 1500 residents of Mt. Pulaski, Ill., had to go for forty-eight hours without a bath. A water consumer left his caucet open all night and morning found the city supply tank empty.
